The Space Between: A Creative Collaboration between Kevin Morse and Dan Steeves

Opening Recital and Reception: Friday, November 3,

*The recital will be held at the Stone Church at 6:00 pm
The reception will be held at the Saint John Arts Centre, 20 Peel Plaza immediately following the recital.*

The Space Between is an interdisciplinary project that includes a series of intaglio prints, a composition for string quartet, and a spatialized audio installation. Morse's new composition for string quartet will be performed by the Saint John String Quartet on Fri., Nov. 3, 6:00 pm at the Stone Church; followed by the opening of the exhibition and a reception at the Saint John Arts Centre.

Dan Steeves is a visual artist who works primarily as an Intaglio printmaker. Steeves is the Printmaking Technician and a Lecturer in the Mount Allison University Department of Fine Arts. He has been the recipient of a number of significant awards, including the Sheila Hugh MacKay Foundation Strathbutler Award for Excellence in the Visual Arts and the 2014 Open Studio National Printmaking Award. Steeves holds a BFA from Mount Allison University.

Kevin Morse teaches in the Department of Music at Mount Allison University, where he held a Marjorie Young Bell Faculty Fellowship from 2013 to 2015. His recent compositions include a chamber opera, music for piano and voice, and an orchestral work premiered by the Prince Edward Island Symphony Orchestra. He holds a PhD from the University of Western Ontario.

The exhibition will remain at the Saint John Arts Centre until December 20.
